

Call for papers...

The Xavier Zubiri Review is soliciting papers for its seventh edition, which will be published late in 2005. Papers dealing with any aspect of Zubiri's philosophy or biography will be considered. All papers are reviewed by the Editorial Review Board, and authors may be asked to make changes or corrections. Papers may be in any language, though English and Spanish are preferred. Papers should be 10-20 pages in length, and should be submitted electronically if possible. This may be done by including a diskette along with the printed version of the paper, or by sending the paper electronically, as an e-mail attachment. Charts, diagrams, and photographs are acceptable, though photographs will only be printed in black-and-white. All papers accepted will be published on the Xavier Zubiri Foundation of North America's web site, www.zubiri.org, as well as in printed form. Papers must be received no later than 1 October 2005 to be considered for this issue. Authors should also include a brief biography and a photograph, or be prepared to supply them after acceptance of their paper for publication. We are also looking for responses to this year's editorial on page 3. If you wish to submit your list of the most important problems outstanding in Zubiri's philosophy, please do so by 1 October 2005.

Please send papers to:
